

HEATHCOTE, ILKLEY, YORKSHIRE

FOR J. HEMMINGWAY, ESQ.

THE WALLS OF THE HOUSE AND GARDEN ARE BUILT OF CLEAN-CUT DELPH STONE FROM THE IDLE QUARRIES, AND THE DRESSINGS ARE IN BLUE MORLEY STONE. THE ROOFS ARE COVERED WITH HAND-MADE PANTILES HAVING A SANDED TEXTURE. THE TERRACES AND PATHS ARE PAVED WITH YORK STONE AND PANELS OF SLATE. THE GROUND FALLS SHARPLY TO THE SOUTH, AND THE OLD BEECH HEDGES FOUND ON THE SITE HAVE BEEN MOVED SO AS TO ENCLOSE THE GARDENS. A STREAM RUNS THROUGH THE GARDEN FROM NORTH TO SOUTH AND HAS A CONSTANT FLOW OF WATER
